Personal data that we process:

CDFX Trading processes personal data so that you can make use of our services in an efficient way.

Below you will find the personal data we collect and process:

- First and last name
- Email Address
- IP-Address
- Personal data that you give to use, for example, when making an account or posting a comment on a blog.
- Data about your activities on our website
- Data about your web behavior from different websites (because this website might be part of our advertisement network)

Our website does not have the intention to collect information from people younger than 16. We do this only when they have permission from their parents. However, we cannot check if someone is 16 years or older. We advise parents to be involved in the online activities from their children (younger than 16) to prevent the collection of data from children that are younger than 16. If you are convinced that we collected data from someone younger than 16, please contact us at cdfxtrading@hotmail.com. We will make sure this data gets deleted.

Why do we collect personal data:

CDFX Trading processes your personal data for the following purpose:

- Progressing payments
- Connecting with you if needed to answer questions about our services
- To inform you about updates
- Giving you the opportunity to make an account
- To provide services
- CDFX Trading analyses your behavior on our website in order to improve our website and improve our services, to fit your personal needs
- CDFX Trading processes personal data if we are legally required to do so

How long do we store your personal data:

CDFX Trading does not store your personal data any longer than needed to provide our services to the best of our ability. The storage of personal data starts as soon as you access our website.

CDFX Trading does not sell your personal data to other parties. It will only provide your personal data to third parties if it is needed to make sure we provide the best service possible, or if it is needed for law purposes. The companies that do get access to your personal data will make sure the data stays secure and safe.

How do we store your personal data:

Our company is hosted on the Wix.com platform. Wix.com provides us with the online platform that allows us to sell our products and services to you. Your data may be stored through Wix.com's data storage, databases and the general Wix.com applications. They store your data on secure servers behind a firewall.

All direct payment gateways offered by Wix.com and used by our company adhere to the standards set by PCI-DSS as managed by the PCI Security Standards Council, which is a joint effort of brands like Visa, MasterCard, American Express and Discover. PCI-DSS requirements help ensure the secure handling of credit card information by our store and its service providers.
